Transport - general information

The website of the "Verkehrsverbund Stuttgart" is <http://en.vvs.de/home/>

Here you find the timetables of the metro and of all buses and trains in the region of Stuttgart and in the surrounding districts of Böblingen, Esslingen, Ludwigsburg and Rems-Murr District.

If you scroll down on the website you find connections between your departure and arrival site.

To come to the University of Hohenheim you have to get off either at the metro station Plieningen (U3) or at the bus stops "Universität Hohenheim" or "Plieningen Garbe".

Ticket prices and purchasing

Tickets \(vvs.de\)

The ticket prices can also be found on the website linked above.

You can buy tickets at vending machines at metro/S-Bahn stations, directly from the bus driver or online via the app or the website. Be aware that buying a ticket at a machine or in the bus costs more than online!

Day tickets: allows you to take as many trips inside your chosen zone for 24h

Single ticket: allows you to take a single trip inside your chosen zone

We recommend getting a day ticket for each day. Costs seen below.

Zones: if you cross the border of the zones, you'll have to buy a ticket for two Zones

Examples:

- you travel from the airport Flughafen/Messe (Zone 2) to Hauptbahnhof (Zone 1) you will need a ticket for two zones
- you travel from the main station (Stuttgart Hauptbahnhof) to Plieningen Garbe you'll need a ticket for one zone
